

Community award for new school

Teacher Dian McCarthy accepts a citizenship award from Jim Bell, president of the Sheridan Park Community Association. It will be presented annually to the graduating student of Sheridan Park public school who has contributed most to the school. At left is Jerry Cunningham, principal of the $547,000 school on Linwell Road officially opened last night by the Lincoln County board of education. More than 600 people attended the ceremony at the new 10-classroom school. Occupied Feb. 9, it had been under construction since last July.
