Sounds of drills and hammering are heard in the freshly-painted halls of the city's new Sheridan Park's first students fill

Opening of the Linwell Road school is a major schedule, said Doug Grayson, area superintendent of the Board of Education.

Work on the two-storey, 25,194 sq. ft. building began in July and target date for opening is January.

"It's pretty hard to be exact in estimating the cost," said Mr. Grayson, who added that the project will take a few more weeks to complete.

The building cost $11.1 million. It has 10 classrooms, guidance room and gymnasium.
